

Come Together to Say No! to Torture

Friday evening, January 19 and Saturday, January 20, 9 am to 7 pm

Covenant Presbyterian Church (near Los Angeles Int'l Airport)
6323 West 80th St., Los Angeles, CA 90045

Join with others who believe that God demands justice and humane treatment for all, especially those at our mercy. Come together to become informed, learn organizing skills, ask questions, pray, network and strategize. We will focus on various aspects of the issue: ethical, legal, theological, political, the impact on victims and implications for our troops and global security. But most of all, we will come together to witness to God who says "Yes!" to life and "No!" to torture.

Keynote Speaker, Richard Mouw, President of Fuller Theological Seminary
7 pm Friday

Saturday's Presenters include:

George Hunsinger, McCord Professor of Systematic Theology, Princeton Theological Seminary
Program for Victims of Torture

Richard Abel, Law Professor, University of California, Los Angeles

Philip Carter, former U.S Army Officer, attorney and author

Rick Ufford-Chase, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Peace Fellowship

Catherine Gordon, Associate Director, Presbyterian Church, USA, Washington Office

Shannon Parks-Beck, Activist, Song Writer and Musician

Carol Wickersham, No2Torture Coordinator

Register at www.no2torture.org or by calling (818) 788-3330.

Childcare available if registered by Jan. 8.

Limited travel scholarships are available for college students. For information and an application contact: CLWickersham@no2torture.org

There is no fee for this conference. A freewill offering will be received to cover the costs of a vegetarian breakfast, lunch and dinner. Out of town guests are welcome to bring sleeping bags / pads and stay at the church or to book a room at a nearby hotel (details at the web site).

Co-sponsored by No2Torture and the National Religious Campaign Against Torture (NRCAT)